

Assembly of Confessing Congregations Incorporated

"The Best of the ACC National Conference 2008" DVD Set

2008 ACC
Conference

Four National Speakers—equipping the church for the challenges of today.

1) Keith Garner 'Responding to the Great Commission in a Post-Christian World' Friday Rally. Keith Garner is a gifted preacher who moved from the UK to Australia to become Superintendent of Wesley Mission, Sydney. He broadcasts regularly, hosts a weekly television program on Channel 9 and is sought after to give social comment on a range of issues.

2) Deane Meatheringham 'Regaining our Cutting Edge' Thursday Night.

Deane is a teacher evangelist. In the past he has served as a parish minister and Executive Director for New Creation Teaching Ministry. Currently Deane is a Rural Resource Minister working for the SA Synod.

3) Rob Yule 'As at the Beginning: The Book of Acts for Mission Today' Friday Morning.

He was a national adviser on the board of Presbyterian Renewal Ministries during a period that saw a dozen charismatic churches emerge as the flagship churches of the Presbyterian movement throughout New Zealand. He was Moderator of the Presbyterian Church (2000-2002), and is now the Senior Minister of Greyfriars Presbyterian Church in Auckland.

4) Marcia Riordan 'Respecting Life while Healing the Broken-hearted' Saturday Morning.

Marcia is the Executive Officer for Respect Life Office within the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne. The Respect Life Office works to promote a New Culture of Life and Love for the Australian community where every person is welcomed, honoured and revered.
